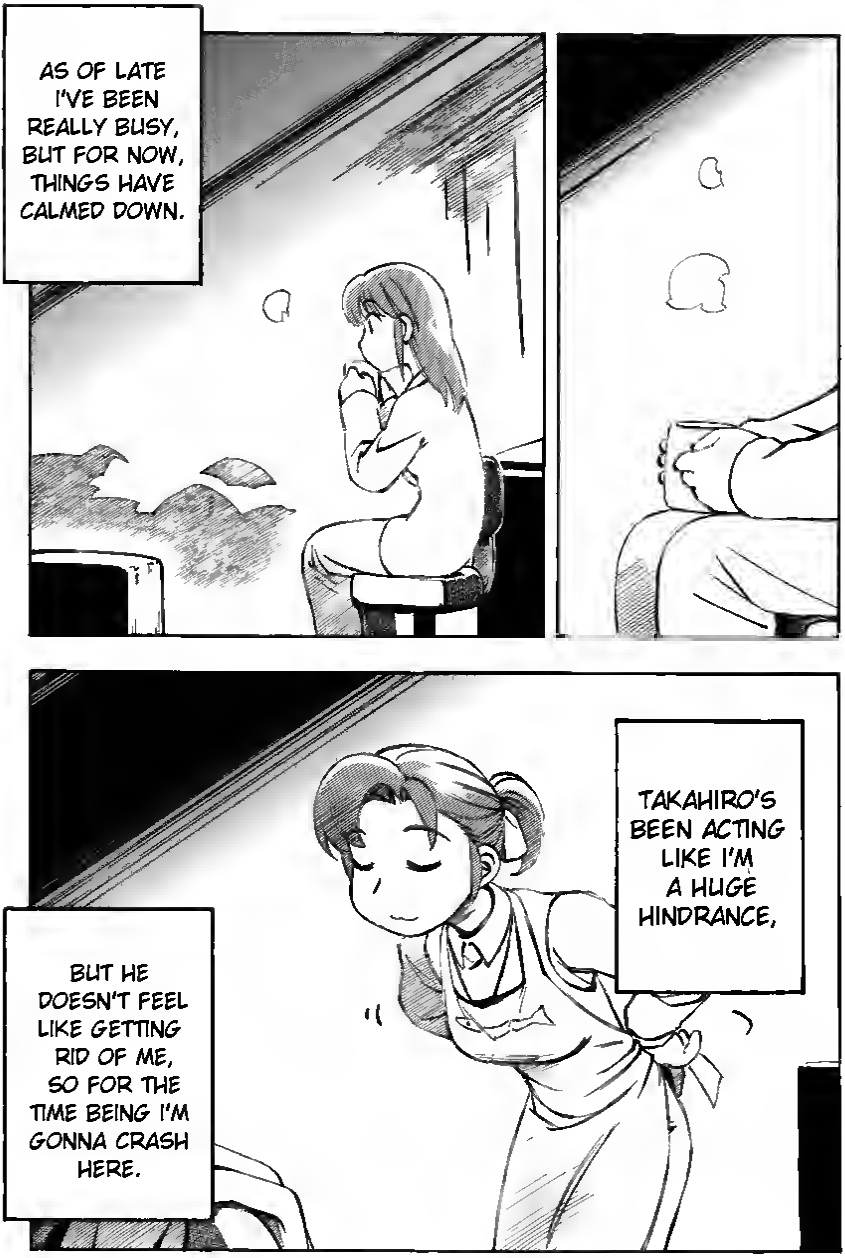
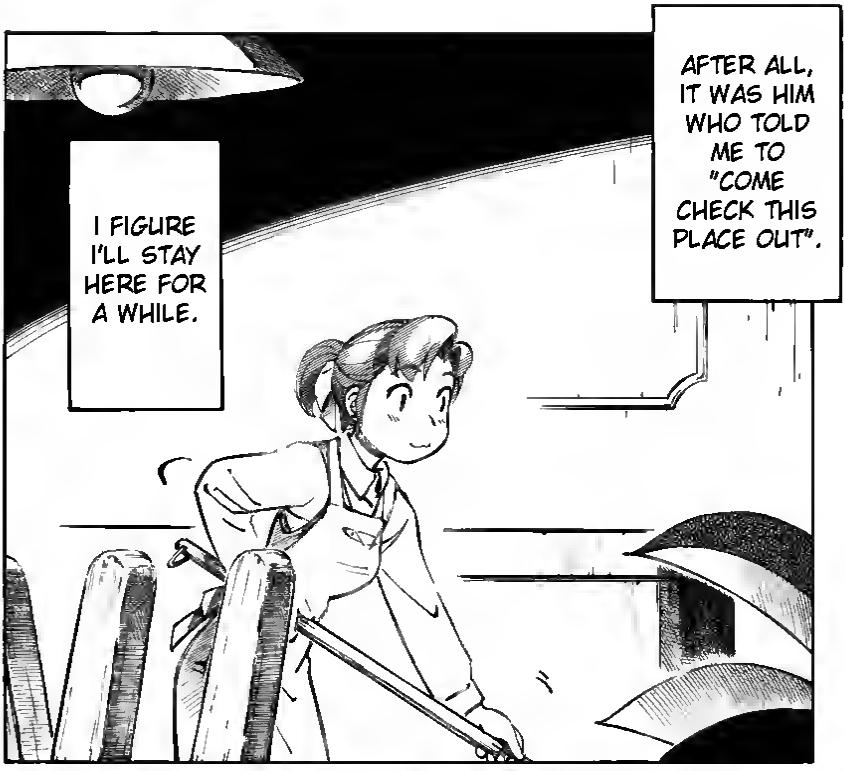
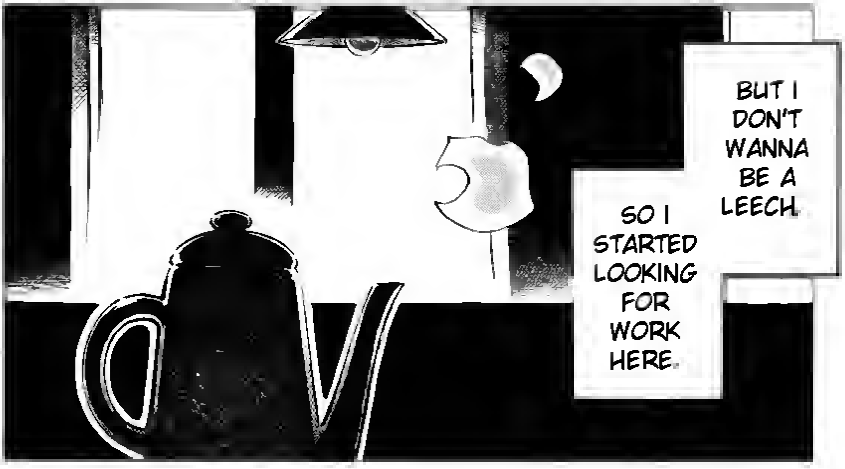
DEAR
ALPHA,



AS OF LATE I'VE BEEN REALLY BUSY, BUT FOR NOW, THINGS HAVE CALMED DOWN.
TAKAHIRO'S BEEN ACTING LIKE I'M A HUGE HINDRANCE,
BUT HE DOESN'T FEEL LIKE GETTING RID OF ME, SO FOR THE TIME BEING I'M GONNA CRASH HERE.

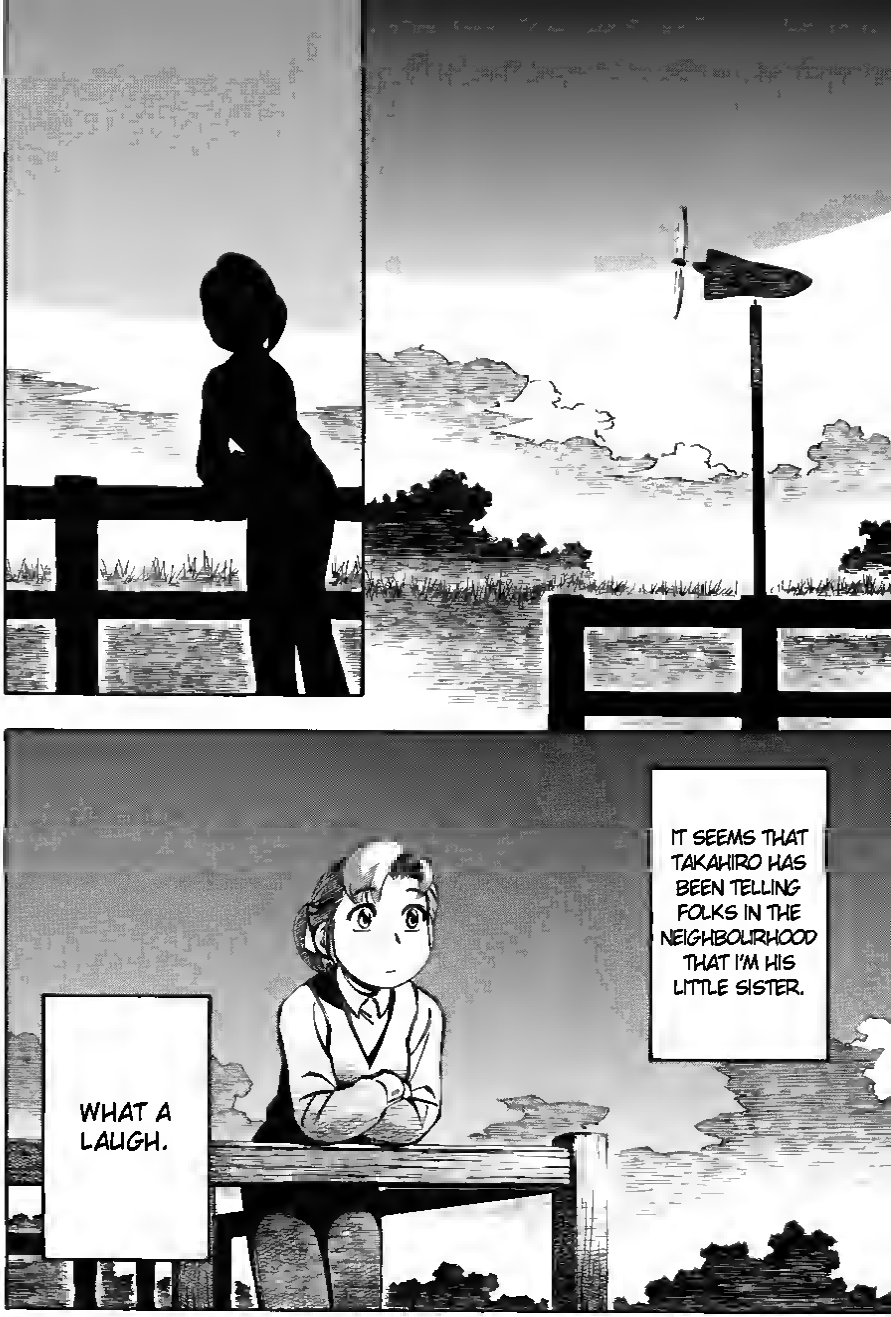


I FIGURE I'LL STAY HERE FOR A WHILE.
AFTER ALL, IT WAS HIM WHO TOLD ME TO "COME CHECK THIS PLACE OUT".



SO I STARTED LOOKING FOR WORK HERE.
BUT I DON'T WANNA BE A LEECH.

HAMAMATSU IS AN INCREDIBLY HUGE CITY. THERE ARE PEOPLE EVERYWHERE.
APPARENTLY, PEOPLE ASSOCIATE THE AREAS OF EASTERN COUNTRIES WITH FIELDS.
WE WERE COUNTRY BUMPKINS ALL ALONG!



IT SEEMS THAT TAKAHIRO HAS BEEN TELLING FOLKS IN THE NEIGHBOURHOOD THAT I'M HIS LITTLE SISTER.
WHAT A LAUGH.

THANKS FOR COMING TO MY FAREWELL PARTY THE OTHER DAY.
WORKING FOR MUSASHINO DELIVERY WAS GREAT, EVEN IF THE SALARY WAS POOR.
AFTER WORKING THERE FOR FIVE YEARS, I FINALLY FELT LIKE I BECAME A KEY PLAYER.
I DIDN'T KNOW WHAT TO DO.

I THINK I'VE MADE A RIGHT MOVE.
HAVING BEEN GIVEN A PUSH BY YOU AS WELL AND COMING TO HAMAMATSU, WE'LL BE WAITING.
WHEN YOU HAVE SOME FREE TIME (YOU ALWAYS DO!), PLEASE COME TO VISIT.

UNTIL NEXT TIME,
MAKKI

Everyone's ships

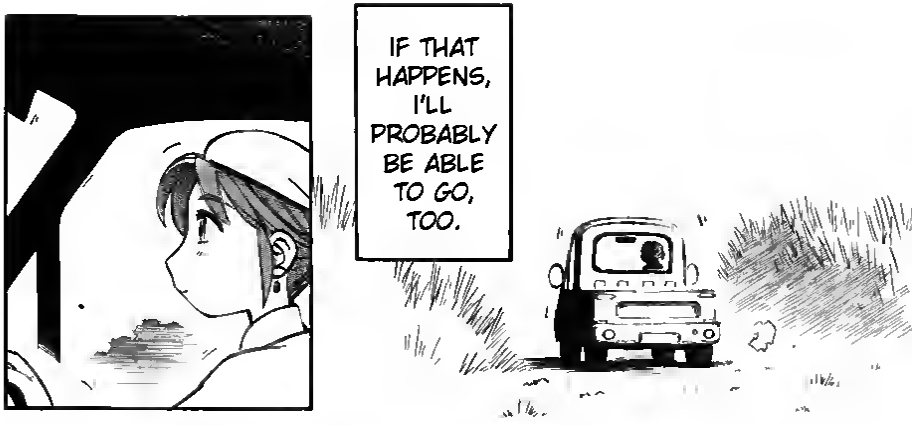
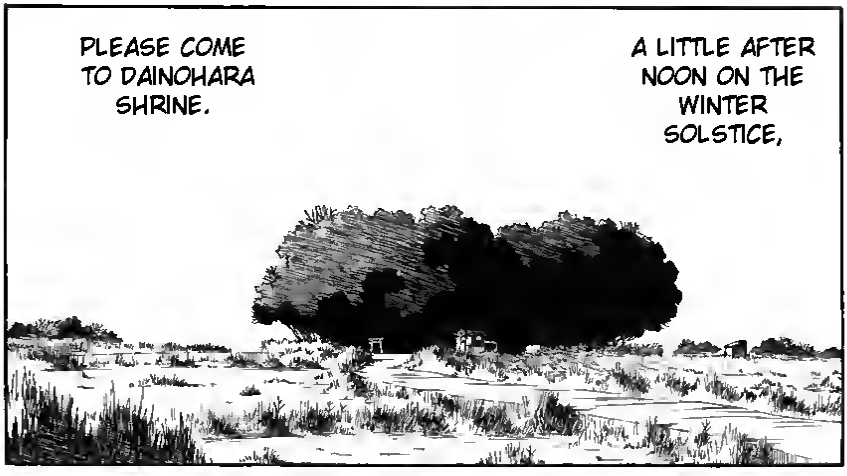
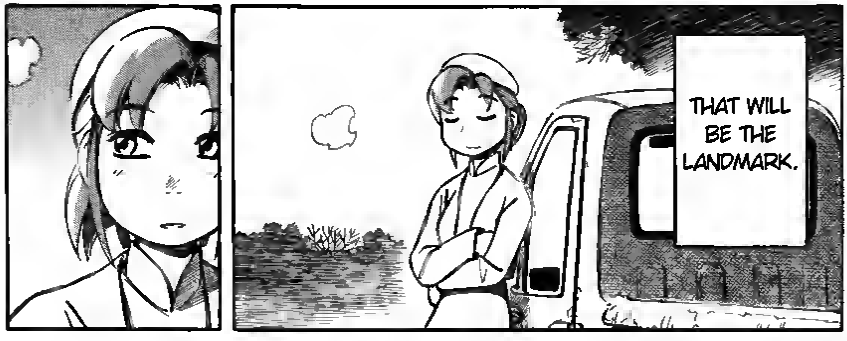
P.S.
THE OTHER DAY, TAKAHIRO AND THE GUYS FINISHED PUTTING TOGETHER AN AIRPLANE FROM FIVE OR SIX PIECES.
THEY'LL HAVE TO FLY IT TO KANAGAWA NEXT.
TAKAHIRO WILL PROBABLY GET TO GO.



IF THAT HAPPENS, I'LL PROBABLY BE ABLE TO GO, TOO.



PLEASE COME TO DAINOHARA SHRINE.
A LITTLE AFTER NOON ON THE WINTER SOLSTICE,



THAT WILL BE THE LANDMARK.

WE'LL FLY THERE TOGETHER.
